AN IMPOLITIC APPOINTMENT.

The regents of the State University have elected Miss Alice E. Armstrong of Frisco, California, librarian of the University at a salary of $800 per annum. Many of the supporters of the institution will wonder why the regents went to California to get a librarian. There are plenty of young ladies in Nevada who are entitled to the position.—Wells Herald.

If the above is true the appointment is one of the most impolitic things ever done by the regents of the University. It is a marked and deliberate discourtesy to every lady graduate of the institution.

From all the Nevada girls who have graduated at this institution it would seem strange if one could not be found capable by her experience and mental equipment to fill such a position.

It would seem just as strange if a hundred could not be found well qualified for the place. Yet the Regents deliberately give these graduates a public snub and send to California for a librarian.

Messrs. Boher, Smith and Starritt, what explanation have you for this sort of work?

COWARDLY JOURNALISM.

Some weeks ago the San Francisco Examiner made one of the most cowardly and dispicable attacks on James Barry of the Star that has ever occurred in the annals of Pacific Coast Journalism.

They printed a picture of an old lady who is being taken to the almshouse and with a large scare head over the picture as follows:

"James H. Barry, save your Aged Mother from the almshouse!"

While it did not mention what particular James H. Barry was meant, the inference was that it meant James H. Barry of the Star, a man who, by reason of his prominence as the editor of a very fearless newspaper, is well known in San Francisco. Now it happens that the mother of Barry of the Star, died when he was eight years of age, and the Barry who was refusing to support his mother was an obscure and worthless fellow in no way related to the Star editor.

The press of California have taken up the case and are hurling well merited criticisms upon the Examiner for its course which may be regarded by all decent men as utterly beneath contempt.

Hearst should either fire the man who is responsible for such work or stand sponsor for it himself.

Frank Evans and wife, who have been spending several days at the Lake, have returned to this city.
